*Legal Reform in Governance and Justice:
Strengthening Policies, Protection, and Enforcement in a Changing Society*

---

SUMMARY

This edition focuses on legal reform in governance and justice, addressing key policy implementation, protection, and enforcement challenges. Topics include watershed management policies, presidential authority in lawmaking, and the role of mothers in child care financing post-divorce. It also explores victim protection for sexual violence, law enforcement in transportation policies, and the legitimacy of pretrial decisions. Other discussions include human rights protection for unlawful killings and legal safeguards for notaries facing rogue clients in the digital age. These articles emphasize the need for legal reforms to adapt to a rapidly changing society.
